Lot 2231

2231 C A- 1972 (Apr 12) cover with '[helicopter]/HMAS MORESBY/HELO MAIL' cachet, 1c & RAAF 6c tied by Adelaide slogan cancel. With the original letter that states: "We have an helicopter on the ship which brings our mail on board and delivers it ashore for posting". [With article from "Stamp News" (June 1973) that states the mail was originated by a collector aboard the ship which, between February & June 1972, was engaged in an ocean survey off the South Australian coast. The mails were commercial even if the cachet wasn't]
