SARAWAK: 1942 commercial cover to Fusan (Pusan, Korea) with rare franking of Brunei Japanese Occupation 4c orange SG J5 x2 tied by Japanese rubber cds of Kuching (Proud #JD1) in violet, very fine circular censor "chop" in red. A remarkable origin/destination cover with "out of territory" franking. [Gibbons note that all of British Borneo was administered by the Japanese as a single region. Stamps of Brunei, North Borneo & Sarawak were valid throughout these territories "but not, in practice, equally available"]

The exceptional Japanese Occupation of Malaya collection formed by Milo Rowell had no Brunei Used in Sarawak covers of the calibre of this and the next two lots.
