GREAT BRITAIN - Postal HistoryEx Lot 1103

1103	C	A-/C	1668 entire letter headed "Whitehall 18 March 1668" & signed "Lauderdaill" to "The Earle of Tweddale to be/ Communicated to the Rest of my Commissioners", carried privately with no postal markings, some light soiling otherwise remarkably fine; also 1779 large-part brief entire to "The Earl of Lauderdale/Hatton" with 'LAU/DER' b/s, soiling/staining on the address panel. [The first, a marvellous epistle from John Maitland, Second Earl of Lauderdale (and the only Duke of Lauderdale) to John Hay, Second Earl of Tweeddale , states "By the post on monday last I received two from you..." and goes on to detail various sales of land by him, referring to "being Free of the Clauses Irritant" (a term peculiar to Scottish Law) and "...As to the Liquidation on the Coal, I think twelve pound Scots yearly a very low price for the Tenth load of Coall...accept their offer of nine Chalder of Victuall and freeing me of the Ministers Steipa...I doe ever rather desire a Smaller Rent well payed than a greater ill payed, which ruins the Tennand and Dissapoints the Master..." The second speaks of "maers" and a "hors"] (2)	500
