

Lot Type Grading Description

Est $A

SPORTING MEMORABILIA - General & Miscellaneous Lots

2009	Babe Ruth Centennial 1895-1995 medal plus badges for Les Darcy Memorial Statue and 1952 Davis Cup. Fine condition.
------	--

100

Lot 2010

2010

CIGARETTE & TRADE CARDS: Goodwin & Co. 'Champions' rare "A36" album containing full set of N162 Old Judge & Gypsy Queen 'Champions' {50}. This beautiful set includes baseball players (8), the first US football player, boxing (5), tennis (4), jockeys (4), billiards (5) and Buffalo Bill Cody. Fair/Fine condition. {In 1887 Goodwin & Co. were among the first to issue trading cards to promote their brands. Their Old Judge 1887-90 (N172) was the first major set of baseball cards, comprising over 2000 images and using albumen photoprints. Goodwin Champions was the first Goodwin set to use coloured chromolithography}. A very beautiful and popular set.

2,000

CRICKET - AUSTRALIA - 1928-1948 - The Bradman Era

Lot 2086

2086

DON BRADMAN & BABE RUTH: display comprising photo of Bradman meeting Babe Ruth, window mounted with photograph of Babe Ruth waiting to bat, and facsimile autographs of Don Bradman & Babe Ruth, framed & glazed, overall 61x64cm.

200

CRICKET - TEAM SHEETS & AUTOGRAPH PAGES

Ex Lot 2123

2123

1932 Australian Team to United States & Canada, autograph page with 14 signatures including Don & Jessie Bradman (on their honeymoon), Arthur Mailey, Victor Richardson, Alan Kippax, Hanson Carter & Stan McCabe, framed & glazed, overall 29x24cm; together with photo of the World's Greatest Cricketer meeting the World's Greatest Baseballer (signed by Don Bradman); plus book "The Don Meets the Babe - The 1932 Australian Cricket Tour of North America" by Sissons (signed by Bradman & author) [Cambridge, 1995]. (3)

1,000