TOM CORRIGAN: Rare plaque with mounted metal bust on original wood shield with original maroon velvet covering, with the cast heading 'Late Tom Corrigan'. The bust a cast metal image of Corrigan inside a horse-shoe, with the reins, jockey's cap and two horses feet. Both sides and top corners embellished with cast metal vine leaves, and a cast metal racehorse ridden by Corrigan at base, overall 37x45cm. {Tom Corrigan (1854-1894) was an Australian steeplechase jockey who died as a result of injuries sustained while racing. His funeral cortege, led by 150 trainers and jockeys, was the largest seen in Melbourne to that time}.

CARBINE: Display comprising pair of Carbine's horse-shoes, mounted with tin photographs (in terrible condition) of Carbine and jockey (probably R Ramage rider for 1890 Melbourne Cup) & plaque engraved "Carbine 1890", overall 43x49cm. Marked on reverse "T.Mason, Maker, Braybrook". Provenance: ex Lederberg Stud, the home of Carbine until 1895. Despite this provenance, we cannot guarantee these shoes were worn by Carbine. [Carbine started 43 times for 33 wins, 6 seconds & 3 thirds; his wins include Sydney Cup in 1889 & 1890; and Melbourne Cup in 1890. Carbine was a leading sire in Australia, and was then purchased by the Duke of Portland for 13,000 guineas; more than half of the 65 Melbourne Cup winners from 1914 to 1978 were descendants of Carbine, including Comic Court, Phar Lap, Rising Fast, Rain Lover & Think Big].
